BANKS VERSUS BANK

How a Pretty Slick Fellow Lost His Case Saturday Afternoon

Saturday noon W. Oscar Banks, colored, made a futile attempt to swindle the Farmers and Traders Bank of this city out of $125.

His scheme was a plausible one, but fortunately his intended victim was too old at the business and not so easily trapped as a less experienced Banker might have been.

Banks had evidently given the matter thoughtful and careful attention in arranging his program for carrying out his intended sloop and hasty departure.

His first move was to inform himself of the financial standing and credit of Short & Kain, whose name he wished to use in the transaction; next his fertile ingenuity suggested the use of the telephone and the aid of a glib boy—fifteen-year-old Ben Middleman. Having arranged details to his own satisfaction, the next move was to successfully execute them.

He went to the livery stable of R. H. Pollitt in Second street and called up the Bank over the 'phone, representing himself as John Short, and stating that Short & Kain wished to borrow $125 on a thirty-day note, and that the Bank could send the money by a boy who would call for it, and at the same time deliver the note.

While Cashier Pearce knew Short & Kain to be perfectly good, and their credit first class at the Bank, the manner of procedure did not have a business aspect and he at once suspected something wrong.

However, he sent Mr. Walton, the Bookkeeper, with the money and a note which he drew up, to the firm's business place at the corner of Second and Limestone, who returned in a few minutes with the information that they had made no such request and knew nothing about it.

In the meantime Mr. Pearce had called up the Chief of Police and informed him of what was going on. An officer was stationed nearby with instructions to detain the boy when he called at the Bank. After waiting some time young Middleman came and made a request for the money. He was promptly taken in charge, and after being interrogated, he conducted the officer to where Banks was waiting.

He was taken to the Bank, and when confronted by the Cashier he attempted to explain matters, but only succeeded in tangling himself more tightly in the web of the law.

He was placed in Jail and will have an examining trial today.

Banks is about 30 years old and comes of a good colored family who resided some time ago in Ashland. His father is a highly respected Minister, and he has a sister whose husband was a teacher in the Ironton (O.) schools.

Nineteen years ago Rev. I. F. Lindsey, Pastor of the Plymouth Baptist Church, who resides at the corner of Third and Commerce streets, taught school at Ashland, and Banks was one of his pupils. He is an intelligent fellow and has been around the world, having served as a soldier in the Philippines.

He came here several weeks ago, and after instructing a large class gave an entertainment in the Plymouth Baptist Church last Friday night, in which the Philippine Drill was a very pleasing part.

He is very anxious that his parents know nothing of his predicament.

Walter C. Wormald, formerly of this city, is now living at 219 West Broadway, Louisville.

Misses Ethel, Anna Mae and Jennie McMillan of Dover were guests of Mrs. Rebecca Hamilton of West Front street Saturday.

Colonel David Hechinger continues to improve, and with the same favorable progress will be able to be out in a few days.

MR. J. N. LEE.

Mr. J. N. Lee, whose illness has been noted in THE LEDGER, died at his home in Lewisburg Saturday noon, aged 63 years. He had been in failing health for three years, but had only been confined to his bed the past six weeks.

The deceased was born in Fleming county, but for the past thirty years had been in business in Lewisburg, where he was highly esteemed for his sterling worth and integrity.

He was a member of the Baptist Church and of the Masonic Fraternity.

He leaves a wife and three children, R. E. Lee, Manager of the Palace Hotel, Cincinnati, J. V. Lee, merchant at Gallipolis, O., and Mrs. Ada Hoolber of Cincinnati, also three brothers, J. Wesley Lee, the Market street clothier, Marshall Lee of Fleming county and Frank Lee of Mason county.

The funeral took place this morning at 10 o'clock from the Lewisburg Baptist Church. Interment in nearby Cemetery.

MRS. JOSEPH TRISLER.

Mrs. Joseph Trisler, after an illness of three weeks with typhoid fever, died at 3:30 yesterday afternoon at her home in East Second street, Fifth Ward. She would have been 48 years of age in November, having been born at Quincy, Lewis county, November 15th, 1858.

A husband and three children survive her, Mrs. Lula Lingenfelter, Mr. Albert Trisler and Nellie, nine years old. Five sisters and three brothers mourn her loss—Mrs. W. T. Hancock, Cincinnati, Mrs. Charles Haley, this city, Mrs. Thomas Bruce and Mrs. Mary Brown, Catlettsburg, Mrs. John Egnew of Colorado, James Alley, Addyston, O., Jesse Alley, Garrison, and Charles Alley, Ironton, O.

She was a faithful and zealous member of the First M. E. Church, South, and delighted in doing good and serving her Master. A faithful wife, a loving mother, and a kind neighbor, and as such she will be missed by those who knew her.

The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock from the residence, with services by Rev. Charles F. Evans of Carlisle. Interment in Maysville Cemetery.

LEO COLLINS.

Leo, the eight-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Collins, died at the home of his parents near Millcreek Saturday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock, after an illness of two weeks. He was a bright, lovable child, and his death leaves an aching void in the home circle.

The funeral occurred this morning from Mayslick Catholic Church.

Interment in Washington Cemetery.

MRS. ISABEL STRODE.

Mrs. Isabel Strode, wife of Dr. John T. Strode, died at Lexington at 1:50 yesterday morning, after a brief but painful illness, aged 62.

It was stated in these columns last week that Mrs. Strode was operated upon for gallstones, as a last resort in saving her life, but even this deferred the fatal stroke only a few days.

Mrs. Strode was a generous, kind-hearted woman, and her death will be mourned by a wide circle.

Besides her husband, whose devotion at her bedside was sublime, she leaves two grown sons, Messrs. Gay and Hall Strode, both residing in Lexington.

She was a daughter of the late James H. Hall of this city.

The remains will reach here over the L. and N. this morning, being taken to the home of her brother, Mr. William F. Hall, corner Forest avenue and Lexington streets, from whence the funeral will occur tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock, with services by the Rev. Preston Blake of Lexington, assisted by the Rev. W. R. Ivey of the First Baptist Church.

The interment will follow in the family plot in the Maysville Cemetery.

In the marriage license column of Saturday's Enquirer appear the names of Mr. Holt R. Slack, aged 21, metal worker, 408 East Pearl, and Miss Essie Guilfoyle, aged 19, Baymiller street, Cincinnati. The young lady is the youngest daughter of the late Thomas Guilfoyle of this city, and the young gentleman is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Slack of West Third street.

For nearly fifteen years Lyman H. Howe has been a familiar figure on the ground of the important events of international politics and trade. His agents are constantly on the lookout for interesting points of the world's work, his system being similar to that of the illustrated weeklies, the only difference being the kind of photography. Where the press photographer has a single exposure, Lyman H. Howe or his agents obtain a picture of the occurrence. The new program which will be shown at the Washington Theater on Monday, October 22d, is guaranteed to surpass all previous efforts. It is replete with novel features of absorbing interest. No one should miss the splendid scenes included in this.

Rev. E. L. Powell of Louisville is to assist Rev. W. E. Ellis in a protracted meeting to begin at the Christian Church at Cynthiana October 29th.

A new era in the advancement of Kentucky's resources is believed to have been begun by the fifth State Development Convention, which completed its work at Winchester. Much work of importance was accomplished, in addition to the formation of a permanent organization, and other work given an impetus which will bring it through to a successful ending. Owensboro may be chosen as the next meeting place, an invitation being expected when the Executive Committee meets within a few days.

Do You Know as Much as You Ought to Know About Our Ready-Wear Department?

Perhaps you don't know anything about it. Some women waste money and wear unsatisfactory clothes because they don't. Perhaps you wear good clothes but pay too much. In either case a knowledge of Hunt's Ready-Wear Department will help you. Our business standard means advancement each year. This year's Coats, Skirts and Suits are better than last year's—in fact our present stock is the culmination of many years progressive effort and appreciation of the quality—clothing we sell, as expressed by our tremendous increase in sales, has made it necessary to place another competent fitter in our Ready-Wear Department. This fact speaks for itself, it's self-evident—it's the only kind worth valuable ad space. Vain-glorious boasts that can't be proved, and that no one believes, are too cheap for our standard. In our attractive stock you'll find the well known Wooltex garments—of course you know what style and merit that name implies—but why read about the good things you can see, for until some one invents word-pictures, descriptions must continue to be mere outlines like this:

Suits of blue and black all-wool serge, and fancy mixtures	$10
Suits of plaids, surah cloth and English suitings	$15
Suits of mixtures, serge, cravenette smooth cloth and checks	$20
Suits of broadcloths, Panamas, Scotch chevrons and plaids	$25

Covert Coats $5.90 to $8.75
Raincoats $10 to $25.

DURING the past fifty years we have had but two Democratic Presidents and but two Free-trade periods. In many ways the two men and the two periods were alike. Very similar, indeed, are the two utterances of BUCHANAN and CLEVELAND regarding the material condition of our people under their party administration. We put them side by side for comparison—

BUCHANAN, in 1857, at the close of 24 years of uninterrupted Democratic Free-trade rule, said:

"With unsurpassed plenty in all the productions and all the elements of natural wealth our manufacturers have suspended; our public works are retarded; our private enterprises of different kinds are abandoned; and thousands of useful laborers are thrown out of employment and reduced to want. We have possessed all the elements of material wealth in rich abundance, and yet, notwithstanding all these advantages, our country, in its monetary interests, is in a deplorable condition."

CLEVELAND, in 1893, soon after the beginning of another period of Democratic Free-trade rule, said:

"With plenteous crops, with abundant promise of remunerative production and manufacture, with unusual invitation to safe investment, and with satisfactory assurance to business enterprise, suddenly financial distrust and fear have sprung up on every side. . . . Numerous moneyed institutions have suspended. . . . Surviving corporations and individuals are content to keep in hand the money they are usually anxious to loan, . . . and loss and failure have involved every branch of business."

Two such experiences in half a century should be quite sufficient. They can never be repeated while we have a Republican House of Representatives. It will always be a bulwark against business disaster, against idleness, against the "loss and failure" that came with CLEVELAND and his Congress, against the "deplorable conditions" that came with BUCHANAN and his Congress. There is just one kind of insurance against such conditions that came under BUCHANAN and CLEVELAND—the election of a Republican House of Representatives.

I WONDER if it could be possible for Kentuckians to put aside their partisan politics for just once, and elect a Legislature of plain, level-headed business men, who would pass half a dozen laws for the benefit of all the people, and none for the benefit of office-holding politicians?

Mrs. RUSSELL SAGE may be a generous patron of the movement to establish a permanent Women's Art Club in Brooklyn or Manhattan at a cost of $100,000 or more. This may be all very well as a "fad," but if Mrs. SAGE would build for herself a monument more enduring than marble, she will erect and endow a College for poor children, after the fashion of America's greatest and truest Philanthropist, STEPHEN GIRARD.

WHEN papers and speakers compare prices of commodities in 1896 with those of 1906, showing an increase in the latter year, if they wanted to be fair, they would tell their readers and hearers how hard it was to get work and the money to pay for things in 1896 as compared with present conditions, when there's more work than there's men to do it, and when there's more money in circulation than was ever known in the history of the country.

NOT THIS YEAR— S'mother Year Will Second Street Be Henkel-and-Sullivan

Bad news
And good news
In one bunch!

The following letter to the Street Paving Committee explains itself—

CINCINNATI, O., Oct. 13th, 1906.
Honorable Paving Committee, J. A. Dodson, Secretary, Maysville, Ky.—Gentlemen: When in Maysville the first of the week we promised your Honorable Council to use our best efforts to get a sufficient force and material and begin the paving of Second street and try and finish the same before the season closed. Since my return to Cincinnati I made investigations as to our ability to get the necessary material and labor to complete this work this fall, but I regret to inform your Committee that I find it will be impossible to comply with your wishes in the matter.

I fully appreciate your position and your desire to secure the completion of Second street this fall, but we are fully persuaded that if we attempt the job this fall it would result in a portion of the street remaining open and unpaved during the winter months, which would result in great inconvenience both to the traveling public and especially to the business men along the line of the street.

If you can see your way clear to postpone the paving of Second street until the spring, I guarantee that it shall be done within thirty days after the proper weather opens up. I think that this is the only feasible plan, as by the time that we could get the material there for the cement curbing and concrete work we would be afraid that the cold weather would damage it so that it would be necessary to do it over again in the spring. This late in the season there is always that danger, especially such work as curbing and gutter work.

We have made every endeavor to get such skilled labor as would be necessary since my return to the city but we find it impossible to get it in time to do this work this fall, in so far as it pertains to Second street. In the event the Committee on Paving undertakes the paving of Second street, we reserve all our rights to resist the payment of any excess of cost in paving the same over and above our contract price, and all other rights we may have in the premises.

Regretting that circumstances and conditions over which we have no control prevent our completing the paving of Second street this fall, and hoping that you may be willing to postpone the construction until next spring, we remain, yours very respectfully,

HENKEL & SULLIVAN,
By JOHN W. SULLIVAN.

Woman's Kidney Troubles

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is Especially Successful in Curing This Fatal Disease.

Mrs. J.W. Lang and Mrs. S. Frake

Of all the diseases known, with which women are afflicted, kidney disease is the most fatal. In fact, unless early and correct treatment is applied, the weary patient seldom survives.

Being fully aware of this, Mrs. Pinkham, early in her career, gave exhaustive study to the subject, and in producing her great remedy for woman's ills—Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound—was careful to see that it contained the correct combination of herbs which was sure to control that fatal disease, woman's kidney troubles. The Vegetable Compound acts in harmony with the laws that govern the entire female system, and while there are many so called remedies for kidney troubles, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the only one especially prepared for women, and thousands have been cured of serious kidney derangements by it. Derangements of the feminine organs quickly affect the kidneys, and when a woman has such symptoms as pain or weight in the loins, backache, bearing down pains, urine too frequent, scanty or high colored, producing scalding or burning, or deposits like brick dust in it; unusual thirst, swelling of hands and feet, swelling under the eyes or sharp pains in the back running down the inside of her groin, she may be sure her kidneys are affected and should lose no time in combating the disease with Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, the woman's remedy for woman's ills.

The following letters show how marvelously successful it is.
Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound; a Woman's Remedy for Woman's Ills.

Mrs. Samuel Frake, of Prospect Plains, N. J., writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:— I cannot thank you enough for what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me. When I first wrote to you I had suffered for years with what the doctor called kidney trouble and congestion of the womb. My back ached dreadfully all the time, and I suffered so with that bearing-down feeling I could hardly walk across the room. I did not get any better, so decided to stop doctoring with my physician and take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I am thankful to say it has entirely cured me. I do all my own work, have no more backache and all the bad symptoms have disappeared. I cannot praise your medicine enough, and would advise all women suffering with kidney trouble to try it.

Mrs. J. W. Lang, of 626 Third Avenue, New York, writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:— I have been a great sufferer with kidney trouble. My back ached all the time and I was discouraged. I heard that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound would cure kidney disease, and I began to take it; and it has cured me when every thing else had failed. I have recommended it to lots of people and they all praise it very highly.

Mrs. Pinkham's Standing Invitation.

Women suffering from kidney trouble, or any form of female weakness are invited to promptly communicate with Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. Out of the great volume of experience which she has to draw from, it is more than likely she has the very knowledge that will help your case. Her advice is free and always helpful.

HAYES-BARKLEY.

Kentucky again contributed one of her most beautiful and charming daughters to grace the social circles of New York City, when on Tuesday, October 9th, at Old Plymouth Church, Brooklyn, Miss Helen Gray Barkley, daughter of the late H. C. Barkley of Maysville, became the bride of Mr. George Washburn Hayes.

At high noon the bride, attended by her sister, Miss Florence Howell Barkley, as Maid of Honor, entered the Church to the strains of the ever beautiful Lohengrin's Wedding March, preceded by the ushers, Messrs. Paul Crandell and James W. Nichols, both of New York.

They were met at the altar by the groom, attended by his best man, Mr. C. S. S. Miller, also of New York.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. Newell Dwight Hillis, Pastor of Plymouth Church.

At the conclusion thereof the bridal party returned to the vestibule of the Church, where the bride and groom greeted about sixty relatives and friends.

The bride was beautiful and most charming in a gown of white chiffon broadcloth, trimmed with Irish point lace, with plumed hat to match. She carried white roses.

The Maid of Honor looked lovely in white silk batiste, with trimmings of coral and Duchess lace, and carried pink roses.

The guests from Kentucky included: Mrs. Stanley Bartlett, Jr., Mrs. Harry Barkley, Mrs. Ben Curtis, Mr. Aldrich Curtis, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Watson, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Quigley and her mother, Mrs. Ingram; Mrs. Henry Wadsworth, Mrs. Eleanor M. Brown and other friends from New York, Springfield, Mass., and Poughkeepsie.

The groom is the only son of Mr. George Warren Hayes of Milwaukee, Wis., and is a man of sterling worth and high integrity—whose business and social standing are both of the very best.

After their return from their wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Hayes will reside in New York City.

WORK THAT TELLS.

Plenty of It Has Been Done Right Here in Maysville

Cures that last are cures that tell. To thoroughly know the virtues of a medicine you must investigate the cures and see if they prove permanent. Doan's Kidney Pills stand this test and plenty of proof exists right here in Maysville. People who testified years ago to relief from backache, kidney and urinary disorders, now declare that the relief was permanent and the cure perfect. How can any Maysville sufferer longer doubt the evidence?

C. L. Hubbard, employed in Cablish's grocery, Cox Building, and living at 325 West Third street, Maysville, Ky., says:

"As stated in a testimonial given in 1900, Doan's Kidney Pills brought me positive relief from inflammation of the bladder and a disturbed action of the kidneys. After some time I felt a slight return of the trouble but again used Doan's Kidney Pills and again found complete relief. Now, after nearly five years, I feel able to recommend Doan's Kidney Pills with even greater confidence than before. The results of its use in my case have been very satisfactory. I got the remedy at J. James Wood & Son's Drugstore."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents a box. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.
